

GRAY-NICOLLS ULTIMATE COMBO THIGH GUARD - SENIOR Large - RH

Description:

The Contoured Thigh Guard is designed to offer comprehensive lower body protection. It features an extra-large inner thigh pad for enhanced coverage and comfort, making it perfect for players seeking all-in-one protection. The combination of high and low-density foam ensures optimal impact shock absorption and vibration dampening, reducing discomfort during play. The extra-wide elasticized straps guarantee a secure and comfortable fit, providing stability without compromising on mobility. This thigh guard is ideal for players looking for durable and effective protection on the field.
